

Financial Consultation

The StudentLife financial consultation service offers free, confidential consultation with a professional Consumer Credit Counselor on a variety of issues related to your personal finances.

Some common reasons for a financial consultation include:

- Reviewing your “financial fitness”
- Designing a budget that works for you
- Options for getting out of debt
- Credit report review
- Identity theft solutions
- Budgeting for health care expenses
- General financial planning questions*
- Choosing between leasing and buying a car
- Finding out if you are financially ready to adopt a pet
- Determining the financial impact of getting married or moving out on your own
- Saving for a major purchase or a child’s education
- Bankruptcy or foreclosure prevention strategies
- Determining when to start saving toward your retirement and how much to set aside each month

How to Access Services:

- Call 855-695-2818.
- Request a financial consultation.
- Speak with a Certified Consumer Credit Counselor, who will review your financial situation and address your specific questions.

The StudentLife financial consultation service provides unlimited access to professional financial consultation at no cost to you. Call anytime.
